Patricia Dunlevy Williams brings two decades of successful family law experience to our clients. She has a wide array of experience with all areas of family law, including divorce, custody, adoption, and guardianships. She graduated from the Dickinson School of Law in 1995 after earning her B.A., summa cum laude, in English from Alvernia University. Her legal career began with a clerkship under Judge Henry S. Kenderdine, where she was immersed in family law issues. Following the clerkship, Ms. Williams was a staff attorney for Lancaster County Domestic Relations. She then worked for two Lancaster law firms before striking out on her own as a sole practitioner specializing in family law. Ms. Williams is the Past President of the Lancaster Bar Association and a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Prior to her term as LBA President, she chaired the LBA's Family Law Section for several years and served on the LBA's Board of Directors. She also served as a delegate to the Pennsylvania Bar Association for several terms
