Janice L.M. Longer has been practicing law in Lancaster County for over 20 years and previously served as the Vice President and General Counsel of a publicly traded computer franchisor and distributor. Ms. Longer is a graduate of Villanova Law School. Ms. Longer has a varied background in civil and criminal law matters, including family law, criminal defense and DUI, zoning and municipal law matters, small business counseling, estate planning and employment matters. In addition, Ms. Longer has significant appellate experience and represents clients who have been accused of child abuse and are seeking to expunge a Childline report. Ms. Longer lives in the southern end of the county on a working farm and regularly sees clients in the Quarryville office.
